Additional Notes

- The 'Great Southern Steamup' is for the enjoyment of live-steam garden railways on 32 and 45 mm gauges. It's not a model railway exhibition, rather it's a marvellous opportunity to run steam trains, watch others run and mix with friendly like-minded enthusiasts.
- Entry to the GSSU is only available to registered attendees.
No registrations will be available during the event.
Registrations close on Monday 2nd of November.
- Notifications and updates will be by email only, however a mobile number will assist if personal contact is needed.
- All models must be safe to operate and should be checked and serviceable prior to the event.
- A Safe Working Protocol ('Notice to Enginemen') will be on display within the venue and compliance is mandatory.
- Catering within the hall will include a Vegetarian option. Please advise of any additional dietary requirements:
Special dietary requirements:
- There will be Trade Stands, and a Sell/Swap table for participants.
- Workshops / Clinics are planned for the Saturday.
- While Alcohol is provided as a fuel for locos, Human consumption of Alcohol is not permitted within the premises.

GSSU Dinner.

The Saturday night dinner will once again be at 'The Independent' in Main Street Gembrook, a 5 minute walk from the Steamup venue. The cuisine reflects the chef's Argentinian, French and Italian roots and includes a selection of Starters, ½ split Main with a Side and Dessert. Drinks via individual bar tabs on the night. Bookings close on Monday 26th October. Full registration & payment must be received by then. Bookings will not be accepted at the GSSU. Seating may be restricted and will be allocated in order of receipt of payment. Unsuccessful applications will be fully refunded. Please notify us of any dietary requirements.

Special dietary requirements:

We once again look forward to welcoming you to this great event.
